

SHOULD I GIVE FLOWCHARTS A SHOT?

Hard to say for sure.

Do you want to educate an online audience about your product or service?

Nope.

Flowcharts might not be for you. Have you considered a good book?

Sure do!

Promising, but you're not there yet.

Does your product or service have a legit value, something that helps people?

Eh. Not so much.

Your honesty is refreshing. We hear merlot goes well with that!

Absolutely!

It might be a fit...

Can you craft questions, inviting readers to answer yes and guiding them to a better understanding of your thing?

For sure!

You're def doin' this!

Ready to turn your smart ideas into a branded, well-designed, flowchart?

I'd like to but that sound hard!

Not interested.

Hmmm. Okay then...

Want some help?

Flowcharts probably aren't your thing. Maybe take in a movie?

I've got this!

Me? Yikes!

Good for you! Inexplicably, we have extra time on our hands. Off to shop!

No, thanks

Yes, please!

Fair enough. Good luck! (We're off to shop now.)

That's music to our ears!

I do now

We'd love to help. Then you can rest easy, knowing we've got this!

You know we do these things, right?

Yes. Reaching out soon!
